

Environment Awareness

WHATEVER YOU DO WILL BE INSIGNIFICANT BUT IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU DO IT.

--GHANDI

As an exercise in enhancing our community's environmental faithfulness, you are invited to review the following query and resource that describe aspects of environmental "attunement" and growth. More queries will appear in future Announcement Sheets in the hope that you will find one that engages you. We invite you to work with that aspect or point individually, meditate on it, and/or join a small group to share your ongoing growth regarding that issue. A query that a contemporary Quaker seeking to live in harmony with the natural world would likely find compatible to live in spiritual alignment with'

- Are you committed to a spiritual practice that continuously opens your sensibilities to the wonders and mysteries of the world around us?
- Does this inspire a sense of deep empathy and interconnectedness with all natural systems?

A resource for contemplation:

- Click here to see the brief and beautiful Pendle Hill Pamphlet #403: "Integrity, Ecology and Community: The Motion of Love" by Jennie Ratcliffe.

Sponsored by the New Story Group—Environment Awareness Program. Contact: Gwen Noyes at new-story@fmcquaker.org